

Gaela's consultation on my house was immensely comforting. She was able to point out qualities related to the space that were contributing to issues that I was having in my life, and with a few simple recommended changes, the energy of the space changed palpably. As an interior designer, I pride myself on being sensitive to spatial relationships, but Gaela has shown me that there are ever deeper dimensions to this. Since her very thorough and professional consultation, I can honestly say that my life, not just my space, has been enhanced immeasurably. Going forward I will always incorporate Forces of Nature Design and I emphatically recommend Gaela's services to my clients!

My husband and I built a house over 20 yrs. ago, but have not lived in it for 18 years. The house is on a spectacular piece of property and should be a place that we can't wait to move back to. It's not. At least it wasn't until we hired Gaela.

Neither of us had much knowledge of feng shui or geomancy, but what we did know is that the energy in our house was very negative, and that had to change or living there would be impossible. Gaela provided us with a very clear understanding of the forces at work on our site and what we could do to neutralize and clear the negative energy and re-enforce the positive. Her professionalism, knowledge and intuition completely won us over. We have both felt the dramatic shift that occurred in our house and in our attitudes after working with Gaela. We have incorporated her detailed suggestions regarding re-design aspects of our house based on feng shui principles and the information we received from her geomancy services. And I have personally benefited from the space clearing ceremony we performed in the house.

I have become good friends with Gaela because of our house. I am truly grateful for her presence in my life and have absolutely no doubt that without her help I would not be looking forward to living in our house again. Gaela is a gem!

Thank you so much for the care you take! I continue to be amazed at your prowess...and I am sleeping better already. It has made such a difference, and regarding the amazing crystal and stone work - indeed, I feel more clarity. Thank you so much - this has been a truly wonderful first experience. There's a lot of love in your work!

For several years our house had recurrent plumbing problems, and other occurrences that made us believe that some form of energy balancing was needed. I met Gaela and I knew right away, because of her professional confidence, that she was the person to help us correct what was "wrong" with our house. My husband and I found Gaela to be warm, intelligent, easy and fun to be around. She is obviously well schooled in the energy sciences, and had a strong intuitive nature to enhance her skills. She did a thorough fact-finding followed by immediate focused action. She put together a multi-faceted, short term and long-term plan that addressed our needs on many levels for both now and the future. Since Gaela did her initial work, our house is much more comfortable, and we feel more "settled" than we ever have before. The myriad of multiple recurring problems that we were experiencing has stopped. We have noticed an increase in fortunate circumstances and acquaintances, and are observing several of Gaela's astrological predictions about this year coming true. Things are moving in a positive direction, my business is picking up, and our finances are turning around again - the bank account is filling up. I wholeheartedly recommend Gaela's services!

I purchased a lovely, charming old home and had been renovating it for several months. I found it extremely uncomfortable to live there; I developed problems sleeping and severe headaches; objects, fell, crashed and broke often. I was also having problems with hired workers on the property. I tried clearing it myself, but when the occurrences continued to escalate, I contacted Gaela. She did an energetic clearing which transformed the energy into a fresh and positive spirit. We both began to feel lighter in the house - the headaches went away completely and the falling and breaking of objects ceased at once! In a matter of days I began to feel a joy in the house - it was like falling in love. The feelings of dread I had been experiencing vanished. The joy continues, the headaches never returned, and I am delighted to report that it is loved by all who enter. It truly is the warmest and most charming home I have ever owned. My heartfelt recommendations for the wonderful magical work that Gaela did for me and my home!

My wife and I have worked extensively with Gaela on harmonizing, healing, and optimizing the energy of our entire property. She has deep sensitivity and knowledge base for reading, diagnosing and shifting the energetics of spaces. Through earth acupuncture, harmonizing geopathic stress lines, space clearing negative imprints on the land and house, making Feng Shui adjustments, and doing a land blessing - the wellness of our space is flourishing. My clients often report what a healing refuge our place is. We are very grateful to have worked with Gaela, and I recommend her extraordinary services to anyone that wants to feel how much a harmonized space can add to your vitality!

Thank you for your wonderful feng shui consulting while building my new home. Your insights helped make my home feel that it's an extension of me, and ensured the best possible flow and layout. Your work is fundamental, and anyone building a home or remodeling would be wise to hire you. The adjustments and changes made such a positive difference. I love my home - It's my sanctuary, and I love knowing that so much of the peace I experience there is thanks to your work. I highly recommend you to everyone I know!

Shortly after moving into my house I noticed a heaviness there, causing my energy to become sluggish. The house always felt cold in spite of the thermostat's setting. It was clear the house had some energy problems, so I consulted Gaela. She gave me some very effective cures as well as rituals and meditations. Within a couple of weeks, there was more lightness, warmth, and breathing room in the house. Having an extraordinary intuition with space and color, she also chose colors that have brought comfort and harmony to my living space and prosperity to my business. When clients come to my home they always remark about the soothing, healing quality. Gaela's work is intuitive and thorough and I highly recommend her services to anyone needing help with the harmonics of their property!

Thank you so much for coming to the house today, for the report, for everything! I am so grateful for the things you brought to my attention and at the same time I am suddenly more conscious of all the things that are contributing to my swirl. WOW. I really am excited and I am humbled about how much there is for me to learn about creating workable spaces!!!
